Rallying round for mugging victim, 81

A COMMUNITY has banded together in support of an 81-year-old man who was mugged for his pension in Haverhill this week.

The pensioner, named locally as John Clarke, was standing outside the Post Office in High Street when the thief snatched the bag, containing £120, from his hands at about 9.30am on Monday.

After news of the shocking incident spread on social media, a group of local well-wishers have raised £170 to donate to him – £50 more than the amount stolen.

Sky Jordan, a mum-of-two who kickstarted the campaign on the website GoFundMe, said: "I set up the page after hearing about it on Facebook and people began sharing it and within a day we had more than £170. I'm a carer by profession and I know from that what an impact such an incident can have on people, so I thought it would be good to show the man there are people out there who do care."

She added: "I was only aiming for £120 – the amount taken – but people have been so generous so that he has something extra now."

According to Suffolk police, the pensioner was standing outside the Post Office when a man in his 20s reportedly "ran across him" and snatched the bag, containing this week's pension. Initially it was reported a woman had also been mugged at the same time, but police were unable to confirm that.

Although the man was not harmed in the incident, he was "left shaken".

Miss Jordan, 24, said she would be giving the money to one of the victim's relatives to deliver to him.

Commenting on the GoFundMe page, the relative wrote: "On behalf of myself and my family I would like to say a massive heartfelt thank you to everyone who has kindly donated.

"He will be made up that so many wonderful people would do this out of the goodness of their hearts – you truly are amazing people. Thank you Sky for setting this up."

Earlier this year disabled mugging victim Alan Barnes, from Gateshead, was given more than £300,000 from online donations after a beautician started a fundraising campaign.

Police say the attacker is described as being white with dark hair, aged in his 20s and wearing light-coloured clothing.

Anyone with information should call Haverhill police on 101, quoting crime reference HH-15-1507.

Spring chickens (and a rescue rabbit) at school

A PRIMARY school is full of life as the pupils are looking after two rescue animals until they find new homes.

Reception pupils at Clements Primary School in Greenfields Way are caring for a rabbit called Monty.

He had to be given up after he fought with his brother, and Clements headteacher Caroline Zwierzchowska-Dod offered him a home.

The school is also looking after a rescue cockerel, who had to be given up because he was so noisy that he was disturbing his neighbours.

Ms Zwierzchowska-Dod said: "Now he's waking everybody up at Clements. We can hear him sometimes in assembly. It makes all the children laugh and means I don't have silence in assembly!"

Both of the animals come from Luna Animal Rescue in Royston. The reception pupils are learning how to look after rabbits, and are so fond of Monty that they have decided to keep him on as a permanent pet. The rescue centre is still seeking a new home for the cockerel.

The children at Clements School are also looking after some chickens which they hatched themselves earlier this year. They should start laying their own eggs in a few months' time.

Ms Zwierzchowska-Dod said: "The children really enjoyed looking at the animals and learning to look after them. It's one of the fundamentals of character-building to learn to look after each other and the world around you."

"Now there's a bit of a fight over who's going to look after the animals over the summer holidays!"

Trip 'around the world' at care home open day

COMMUNITY BONDING: Carer Zoe Turner sings at Cleves Place during the open day

ELDERLY care home residents took a trip "around the world" during an open day last week.

Cleves Place care home, in Millfields Way, Haverhill, opened its doors to the public for a day of games and activities.

Home manager Sharlene Van Tonder said: "It was such a great day and we were delighted to see so many local people pop in and see us, including many visiting our home for the first time. It was great to showcase the facilities we have here, as well as strengthen relationships with the wider community."

Visitors were also able to pick up their copy of Care UK's Good to Go, which highlights the importance of those living with dementia and their carers to get out and about, and stay active.

The guide can also be downloaded at careuk.com/goodtogo.

Andy beats diabetes risk to turn triathlete

@e_dickinsonCN

A FORMER couch potato who was horrified to find himself on the brink of type 2 diabetes has turned his life around to become a triathlete.

Andy Brown, 40, was told he was at risk of developing the life-changing condition last year – just as his wife Lindsay was given the devastating diagnosis.

But now the Haverhill pair have transformed their lifestyles and this summer Andy will be undertaking his first Olympic Distance Triathlon in August.

The computer programmer, who works at Chesterford Research Park, said: "My wife was diagnosed a few years ago and then just over a year ago I found I was at risk of developing the condition.

FIGHTING FIT: Andy Brown is set to take on his biggest triathlon challenge yet in August

"So to try and reduce the risk of getting type 2 diabetes I began trying to lose weight and get fit. I've lost about five stone since last year."

It was a dramatic transformation for Andy, of Julian Close, who admitted that he had previously done little exercise. He went on to take part in Haverhill's first triathlon last October, which included a 200m swim, an 8km cycle and a 2.4km run.

But for this summer's event in Shropshire, Andy will have to undertake the mammoth task of a 1.5km open swim, a 40km cycle and 10km run.

He said: "It's about taking small steps really and just building up slowly."

"I'm an early morning person too, which means I'm often able to exercise before work as well as after."

He will be raising money for Diabetes UK. To donate, visit justgiving.com/setitesuk

School pupils mark 800th Magna Carta anniversary

CHILDREN at Wickhambrook Primary School celebrated the 800th anniversary of the Magna Carta last week.

The school hosted Margaret Charlesworth, from the Magna Carta 800 Committee, who led an assembly about the document's links to the area.

Afterwards children carried out activities including crown-making, rule-writing, decorating illuminated letters and even making a life-sized collage of King John.

Headteacher Jason Austin-Guest said: "This creative and fun-filled morning proves that teaching children about the significance of key British historical events can be fun."

Helicopter takes woman found in field to hospital

A WOMAN in her 20s was rushed to hospital after being found in a field, suspected of having taken an overdose.

Emergency crews and a police helicopter were alerted after she was found in a field by Haverhill Road, Horseheath, on Monday.

Members of the public were said to have come across the woman.

A spokesman for the East of England Ambulance Service said: "We were called at around 2pm."

"We had reports of concern for her welfare and she was taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge for further treatment."

She was said to have taken "legal medication".

NPAS Wattisham, the police helicopter, tweeted: "One more life saved."

Gerry's viral after brush with the Queen's Guard

HANNAH MIRSKY

FOR most people, a weekend trip to London means visiting tourist attractions and buying souvenirs – for one Haverhill man, it meant becoming a viral internet sensation.

Gerry Weatherhead, a photographer who lives in Hanchett End, was visiting London earlier this month when he was bumped into by a member of the Queen's Guard.

He had been taking photographs of the Royal Family at the Queen's birthday parade, and was making his way through St James' Park afterwards. He stopped there to remove the wrist strap on his camera, when the accident happened.

Mr Weatherhead, 58, said: "My wife and I go to London once a month and we've always wanted to see the Trooping of the Colour. So we went and saw them, and took some photographs, and on the way back we went through St James' Park. There are lots of narrow paths there.

"I felt I needed to go to the little boys' room, and I was taking my camera off, and I just didn't hear him coming.

"It was just a big thump in the back. I looked round and thought 'I'd better get out of here'.

"Nobody was hurt. I'm just a bit embarrassed. We laughed about it when it happened and we just kept it quiet."

The video was uploaded to Youtube on June 15, and by Friday it had been viewed almost five million times.

Mr Weatherhead is seen fiddling with his camera and facing away from the guards as they come towards him.

A military voice can be heard shouting "make way" as a member of the guard marches straight into Mr

Weatherhead, who had no idea at the time that someone was filming the incident.

He said: "I found out about it when somebody said: 'You're on YouTube'. And it had gone viral by about 11am."

Mr Weatherhead said he has heard claims that the incident was a stunt and that he was carried down the street, but he maintains it "was a simple accident".

Town schools and pupils all set for county council's education awards

TEACHERS, students and parents from across Suffolk are attending an awards ceremony tonight – including three nominees from Haverhill.

The Raising the Bar Awards, Suffolk County Council's celebration of educational achievement, will take place at Ashlar House in Bury St Edmunds.

Two Haverhill students have been nominated for the "Young Achiever of the Year" award category: Joshua Branley, who attends Place Farm Primary Academy, in the primary category, and Samuel Ward Academy's Irna Manguerra-Bridle in the secondary category.

Joshua is in Year 6 at Place Farm, but has worked so hard at his maths that his teachers considered entering him for a GCSE in the subject this year. Irna has just finished her GCSE exams at Samuel Ward, and is staying at the school for sixth form.

Deputy headteacher of Samuel Ward Chris Dale, who teaches Irna maths, nominated her. He said: "She's a phenomenal student across the board, but particularly in mathematics. She got 200 out of 200 in her GCSE mock exam. She just isn't precious about it at all."

He says she also takes part in school plays, and is a member of the school's youth parliament.

Mr Dale continued: "You hear the word quite a lot, but I genuinely find it inspiring to teach her."

Joshua said: "I enjoy school and maths is definitely my favourite subject. I also enjoy sport and spending time with my friends."

A Haverhill playgroup has been nominated for the Innovation Award, for its work with children who have additional needs. Sandcastle Playgroup, based at Castle Manor Academy, trains all its staff in a communication programme called Makaton to help children with communication difficulties. The playgroup recently featured in a short film made by the Childcare and Family Trust showcasing good care.

Manager of the playgroup Janette Godfrey said: "It's just about making sure you use your staff well."

Garden of Life is unveiled at town hospice

ELEANOR DICKINSON

A HAVERHILL hospice has officially unveiled its £50,000 garden for patients and local residents.

St Nicholas Hospice Care opened The Burton Centre Garden of Life – eight months after the hospice secured lottery funding in a televised People's Millions competition.

The new garden was opened with a fanfare by Haverhill mayor Betty McLatchy and hospice founder Canon Richard Norburn MBE on Saturday.

Jordan Hughes, St Nicholas Hospice Care Community Fundraiser, said: "The garden looks absolutely fantastic. It's very smart yet also welcoming and soothing, with the water features trickling away. Now, it is a lovely place to sit.

HAVEN: Canon Richard Norburn MBE, hospice founder, and Haverhill mayor Betty McLatchy

"A lot of people said what an improvement it was, and how much it was in need of a revamp. Richard Norburn, who opened the garden, said it was money well spent."

Work on transforming the garden, which was previously a neglected patch of land, started in April and finished just days before the grand opening. Maintenance of the garden will be undertaken by a group of volunteers.

NEW LIFE: The iron balustrade from the burnt-out Burton Cottage is now in use in the garden of the Burton Centre

Historic balustrade revived in garden regeneration

IT'S centuries old, has been lost twice, and almost destroyed by fire – but now an iron balustrade is in use again.

The balustrade was originally part of Burton Cottage, a grand old residence which stood in the centre of Haverhill, on the site of the current library and Burton Centre.

The house was built sometime before the early 1800s, when a pair of brothers called John and Barnabas Webb lived there, according to the chairman of the Haverhill & District Local History Group Roy Brazier.

In 1964, the house became a youth centre, but it was destroyed in a fire in 1987.

The balustrade was almost lost forever after the fire, but Mr Brazier said a resident saw it being taken away on a lorry and rescued it. It was put up in a pagoda in the garden of library, but Mr Brazier said it was later stolen, and recovered in a river at Baythorne End.

Now it has been put to use again as part of the renovation of the garden at the Burton Centre on the site, which is now owned by St Nicholas Hospice Care.

The balustrade is now holding up the shelter of an outdoor patio in the garden.

Have a clear-out and help others

I AM writing to you and your readers to encourage everyone in the East of England to have a clear-out and donate any unwanted items to their local British Heart Foundation (BHF) Furniture & Electrical store.

I have been an advocate of BHF Furniture & Electrical stores for a long time and think their free collection service for donations is fab! Like everyone, I love buying new things for my home but I also love adding a piece of recycled furniture into the mix because not only does it tend to be unique but it can also help a great cause.

As an interiors columnist, I like to source furniture from a wide variety of places, including BHF stores. It's amazing to think that by doing up your home with items from BHF stores, you are also helping to fund lifesaving research into heart disease, which affects people of all ages.

The BHF now has more than 170 dedicated Furniture & Electrical stores selling a range of items, from sofas, beds and dining tables to wardrobes, TVs and toasters. The stores are ideal for anyone looking for unique, good-quality items on a budget, with sofas priced from £95, beds from £65 and washing machines from £60.

BHF Furniture & Electrical stores in the East of England are always looking for donations of unwanted household goods – anything from sofas, beds, wardrobes, TVs and small electricals. You can even book a free collection for your items online at bhf.org.uk/free or call 0800 915 3000. Visit bhf.org.uk/shops to find your local store.

Sleep out for a good cause

FRIDAY, October 2 marks the 18th annual Byte Night, a sponsored sleep-out which sees more than 1,500 people across the UK spend the night exposed to the elements to raise money for Action for Children, a wonderful charity that I am proud to be an ambassador for.

I am sleeping out, and I hope that your readers will join in by taking part in Byte Night East Anglia leg at Cambridge Airport.

Action for Children recently revealed that almost a third of young people in East Anglia phone their parents every day after moving out of the family home, which didn't surprise me as the first steps into independence can be tough.

Sadly, help isn't always available for the most vulnerable young people in the region, such as those have left the care system or who have suffered a severe relationship breakdown with their family. These young people can be forced to live independently at a very early age and with little support, and they don't always have someone to phone and ask 'how do I fix this?' or 'would you be able to give me a sub?'

Action for Children runs vital services that equip youngsters with basic skills from budgeting to housekeeping, ensuring they have a safe and loving place to call home. Byte Night East Anglia raises funds for West Suffolk Shared Housing in Hadleigh and Bury St Edmunds.

Sleeping out will be difficult – but together we can raise more than £1.1 million so that services like West Suffolk Shared Housing continue. That one night really will make a lifetime's difference, so please join me.

To find out more about Byte Night East Anglia please visit bytenight.org.uk or email bytenight@actionforchildren.org.uk. Richard Farleigh

The previous week's Red Cross open gardens at The Barn in Westleton raised more than £1,000.

The Midsummer family celebration and ceilidh at Grundle Farm, Wattisfield, near Diss, raised more than £500 with the final amount yet to be counted. A wonderful day of music-making, theatre and dance with many young children – great fun was had by everyone.

All of the money raised at the Red Cross Open Gardens in Suffolk is spent locally for local people.

For Suffolk Open Garden brochures please visit your local library, tourist information, go to redcross.org.uk or contact Jane Dow on 01284 727247 or janedow@redcross.org.uk.

Slimming group's Tania gets award

THE leader of a Haverhill slimming group has received national recognition for her work.

Tania Watson, who runs the Newcroft Slimming World group each week, has been awarded "Gold" status by the national slimming club.

The award has been given to Tania because there are more than 100 members of her slimming group, who regularly return.

The Haverhill slimming group has 125 members, and over the past year they have lost a huge 220 stone.

The award means that Tania is in the top five per cent of Slimming World's 3,500 consultants.

Tania said: "I am delighted to have received the 'Gold' award. I absolutely love my job, I'm passionate about helping people to transform their lives by losing weight and seeing them succeed is reward enough, but being given this recognition for the whole group really is the icing on the cake."

This is the first time she has received the award since becoming a consultant in October last year.

For more information, call Tania on 07974 565229.

MP urges residents to have a say over town centre

THE MP for West Suffolk visited Haverhill on Saturday – and encouraged residents to voice their views on the town centre.

MP Matthew Hancock came to the town to view the town centre masterplan document. He met Sarah Howard, chairman of ONE Haverhill, the body that is driving the masterplan project.

HANNAH MIRSKY

The draft document suggests dividing the centre of the town into four quadrants and creating a new town square.

Mr Hancock said: "Everyone knows that Haverhill town centre needs a boost. As the town grows we have the chance to get this right. The draft Haverhill Town Centre Masterplan is an important vision to significantly improve the town centre and move Haverhill forward. I urge everyone to take a look and feed back their views. I like this plan but what really matters is that everyone's views are listened to."

The consultation on the document will end on July 17. You can have your say by visiting onehaverhill.co.uk, or by picking up a paper questionnaire at the library or the arts centre.

A series of consultation events have been planned to raise awareness. The next will take place on Saturday at the Castle Manor Community Extravaganza from 10am to 4pm on the Recreation Ground.

Walk around East Town Park cancelled after grass cut

A WALK around Haverhill's East Town Park was cancelled – after the Environment Agency cut back the verges.

The walk, which was due to take place on June 23, was going to focus on the orchids and wildflowers growing in the park, but the cutting meant that they were not there to see.

It was replaced by a walk around West Town Park at 7pm that day. This guided walk focused on the history of the park as well as the flora and fauna on display.

The walk was part of the Haverhill Festival, which runs until July 5. For more information about it, haverhill-tc.gov.uk and call Haverhill Arts Centre on 01440 714140 to book tickets.

CRAZY TIMES: Cosmic Karen from Mad Science with Linton Heights Junior School pupils
 Picture: Richard Patterson

It's a mad science lesson as pupils try flash paper and dry ice showers

PRIMARY school children have experienced a day of mad experiments to help them get excited about science.
 Linton Heights Junior School in Wheatsheaf Way, Linton, was visited by a group called Mad Science.
 Cosmic Karen from Mad Science held workshops and an assembly to show the pupils the fun behind science.
 Her demonstrations included flash paper, which explodes in a big flash when it is lit, and dry ice showers, which you can see demonstrated in the pictures.
 The most unusual of the things she brought in was a roll of flying toilet paper, which she had named Terence.
 Mad Science is a 25-year-old group with branches around the world which aims to help children engage in science and pursue careers in it later in life.

School celebrates end of world war

A SCHOOL celebrated VE day last week with dressing up, historical food and a visit from a war veteran.

On Monday, June 15, the pupils of Barnardiston Hall Prep School left their uniforms at home and dressed up in 1940s clothes.

They tried "digging for victory", planting vegetables which they will watch grow over the coming months, and had a 1940s meal of luncheon meat.

At the end of the day pupils, staff and parents indulged in a tea party on the lawn, where they ate cake and sandwiches and listened to the music of the wartime era.

The school also had a very special visit from war veteran Mr Lucas, and his daughter Kate.

He told the pupils stories of his time fighting in the Second World War, including the difficult time he spent as a prisoner of the Japanese.

This year marked the 70th anniversary of the end of the Second World War.

The Great Bradley Village fete will be held at 2pm at Great Bradley Hall, and entry is free.

Collection raises more than £450

A CHARITY collection at a Haverhill supermarket has raised more than £450.

The Big Collection was held at Haverhill Tesco on June 13 and 14 as part of a national event to raise money for Diabetes UK and the British Heart Foundation.

The volunteers raised £464.08 over the weekend, which will be added to amounts raised nationwide and divided between the two charities.

MP's school funds drive

Haverhill MP Matthew Hancock is part of a drive from Conservative MPs to demand "urgent action" to reform funding for schools in England.

The West Suffolk MP said: "I'm clear we need to see further progress for schools funding to be spread more evenly across England.

"Suffolk schools get less funding for each pupil than the national average, for reasons more down to history than logic.

"This needs to be done in a way that is careful, within tight budgets, and the money then needs to be spent wisely too.

"But it's a case the Suffolk MPs are making and the Government has so far responded positively too."

The Conservatives say they will protect per-pupil funding in cash terms, but that will not take into account inflation.

School leaders said they are forced to look at laying off teachers and increasing class sizes because of the poor funding.

A Department for Education spokesman said: "We are ensuring schools across England are funded fairly so that all pupils, whatever their background and wherever they live in the country, have access to a good education.

"This is a priority for the Government and a key part of our core mission to deliver real social justice.

"The last Government made considerable progress in reforming the school funding system.

"In 2014 an additional £390 million was allocated to boost 69 of the least fairly funded areas in the country in 2015-16 – the biggest step toward fairer schools funding in 10 years.

"But we recognise there is still work to do, which is why we have committed to looking at what more needs to be done to ensure that all local areas are funded justly."

Residents are urged to sign rail petition...

FIFTEEN thousand leaflets urging people to support a campaign for a railway have been posted through doors in Haverhill.

The campaign group known as Rail Haverhill has created an online petition where local people can voice their support for reintroducing a railway to the town.

Leaflets encouraging residents to sign the petition have been distributed in Haverhill and the surrounding villages over the last month, and more are being printed.

Malcolm Hill, chairman of Rail Haverhill, said: "We have already had over 1,100 signatures, but we need about 4,000 to make it really effective. We are encouraged by the fact that a campaign for the restoration of the railway between Wisbech and March in Cambridgeshire has had over 3,000 responses."

If they get enough signatures, the petition will be presented to Cambridgeshire, Suffolk and Essex county councils to encourage them to work together on a rail link.

The leaflets have been financed by the East Anglian branch of a national organisation called Railfuture.

Chairman of Railfuture East Anglia Peter Wakefield said: "Haverhill is growing very rapidly, and it will reach 40,000 people within a few years.

"A high-quality public transport link to take lots of people very fast into Cambridge would benefit Haverhill, Cambridge and everywhere inbetween."

Haverhill has not had a rail line in nearly half a century, as it closed down in 1967.

Rail Haverhill is holding a public meeting at the Haverhill Arts Centre on Saturday for members of the public who want to learn more about the campaign.

To sign the petition or find out more, visit railhaverhill.org.uk.

COMEDY: A century-old postcard showing Haverhill Rail Station

...and a reminder of when there was a railway

THIS postcard, over a century old, is a reminder of a different era – a time when Haverhill had its own train station.

The postcard was loaned to the Cambridge News in 1988 by collector Brian Pannell. Mr Pannell could tell from the stamp that it was posted between 1903 and 1911. Haverhill Rail Station shut down in 1967.

The postcard was sent on March 14 from Felsted in Essex.

It depicts a disastrous train journey through "Fitchtown" – a popularised name for Dunmow – and "Lollipop Town", a name for Thaxted.

The train nearly tips over, comes off the line and throws passengers off.

In the fifth panel, the train arrives at Haverhill and has to be hosed down, as steam rises from it.

In the final picture, a traveller is heading home by foot rather than risk taking the train again.

Mr Pannell told the News in 1988 that there were some mysteries he was not able to solve about the cartoon, including what the sign reading "King William" in the second picture refers to.

It was of 200 postcards in Mr Pannell's collection at the time it was loaned.

BRAVE: Jo Roberts after the close shave

Head-shave in memory of dad John

A WOMAN shaved her head on Sunday in memory of her father.

Jo Roberts, 35, of Pakenham Place, Haverhill, had the radical haircut on Father's Day at the Old Red Lion in Horseheath, where she works.

She said: "I thought, 'my hair's really long, this would be perfect'."

She was raising money for Leukaemia and Lymphoma

HANNAH MIRSKY

Research. With a combination of donations online, and at the pub on the day, she managed to raise an incredible £1,033.28.

Jo's dad John Roberts died in April this year at the age of 83. He had been ill with pneumonia, but it was discovered after he died that he was also suffering from lung cancer.

Jo said: "In 2002 he was diagnosed with chronic emphatic leukaemia. He had a trial lot of chemo which worked wonderfully. It was gone a long, long time."

"My best friend died when we were 18 from leukaemia, so it's an issue close to my heart."

Jo also held a raffle at the pub on the day to help raise money, and thanked all the businesses which donated prizes.

Blood donors thanked by NHS

THE hundreds of people in the county who signed up to be blood donors during an awareness week are being thanked.

National Blood Week ran from June 8 to 14, and aimed to encourage people to register as blood donors.

It involved a "Missing Type" campaign, in which companies and organisations removed the letters A, O and E from public view.

In Suffolk, 380 people signed up to donate blood during the week, a significant increase from the 195 who signed up last year.

Jon Latham, NHS Blood and Transplant's assistant director for donor services and marketing, said: "I'd like to say a huge thank-you to everybody in Suffolk who responded to our 'Missing Type' campaign by either helping to spread the word or by signing up to donate."

Spot the difference.

New police officer to help abuse victims

A NEW domestic violence and vulnerable victims officer has joined a local policing team.

PC Lawrence Allen started in the role at Haverhill Police station on June 8. He says his aim is "to provide continuity for victims at all levels of risk and to be a point of contact so the victim receives the best advice possible".

He works with victims of domestic incidents rated "low" and "medium" risk to ensure they do not become high-risk. His work is following up after the incidents, which could be anything from an argument between a couple to long-term physical or mental abuse. The highest-risk cases will be dealt with by a specialist team based in Bury St Edmunds.

PC Allen has a dedicated room in Haverhill Police stations to make his meetings with victims more comfortable. He said: "There's nothing more daunting than being involved in something very dramatic, and then being taken to four cold walls. We've got a couple of sofas to make it more friendly and relaxed."

PC Allen previously worked in roads policing and back-office crime investigations in Bury St Edmunds.

OVERWHELMED: St Nicholas Hospice Care staff weren't expecting such high numbers

Record numbers register for walk

MORE women than ever before have signed up for a charity walk but there's still time to get involved.

Early-bird registration for the St Nicholas Hospice Care Girls' Night Out has now closed, but 1,355 women have taken advantage of it, up from 1,051 last year.

The event involves walking six miles around Bury St Edmunds in pyjamas to raise money for St Nicholas Hospice Care, a charity which runs Haverhill's Burton Centre and helps people with life-limiting illnesses.

Jenny Baskett, the hospice's events and challenges fundraiser, said: "We've been completely overwhelmed by the number of women keen to walk with us for Girls Night Out 2015. We knew the event was popular and had built a loyal following, but to have attracted so many walkers already this year was a shock."

Last year's Girl's Night Out raised an impressive £150,000 for the charity.

This year's walk, the seventh, will happen on September 12.

Although the period for early-bird registration has passed, women who want to get involved can do so by picking up a form at the Burton Centre, or by visiting stnicholashospicecare.org.uk.

Registration costs £15, and includes a free t-shirt.

Participants also get a hot chocolate and bacon butty (or vegetarian alternative) on the day of the walk.

The Overtones, Cambridge Corn Exchange, Saturday July 4 at 7.30pm. Tickets £31-£101.50. (01223) 357851, cornex.co.uk

The Overtones

THE Overtones are doing a Katherine Jenkins. When they come to Cambridge Corn Exchange, you can nab yourself the "VIP experience".

That means a seat in the first seven rows (oh lucky you), a chance to meet the band, attend soundcheck, get a 20 per cent voucher for The Overtones website (oh, em, gee) and get a 'tour laminate' to take home – whatever that is.

And, best of all, you'll get a gift from the boys themselves! It's probably a signed photo, but if there's not a kiss on the cheek too we'll be horrified. For £101.50, it's the least you deserve.

The five-piece harmony group were famously discovered by a talent scout in 2010 while having a sing-along during their tea break on the decorating site they were working at.

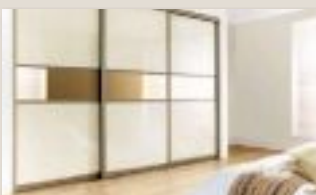

Five years later the lads are on their incredibly successful Sweet Soul Music tour, performing tracks from their fourth collection of the same name. Expect pop belters and tearjerkers galore.

Rose Upholstery: Craft with heart

FROM its Haverhill workshop, Rose Upholstery has been offering a unique upholstery service for more than 30 years now.

Based in Homefield Road, in a workshop that is a treasure trove of furniture, bright and vibrant fabrics and tools, the family company has been operating since first setting up shop in 1976, in Gidea Park. Couple Clare and Trevor Hyett own and run the business, and both take great pride in the personalised approach they offer, upholstering and working their magic on customers' treasured items of furniture with practically no machinery apart from sewing machines and the presses.

PERSONALISED APPROACH: Clare and Trevor Hyett at Rose Upholstery's workshop on Homefield Road

As Clare says: "Everything's cut by hand. Every job is different and you can't get a machine to do that."

And it is these bespoke methods that often see Rose Upholstery's customers bringing in furniture items that they've bought from large retailers, to improve, repair or simply make more luxurious, as well as older items in need of an update or complete refurbishment.

And if you just can't find the right colour or style of fabric to match your home's interior, then Rose Upholstery can help. They have thousands of fabric and leather samples to choose from, and are confident that they have something that will appeal to all tastes.

Indeed, people come from afar for the firm's services, which start with something as simple as re-stuffing flattened sofa cushions.

Clare and Trevor are always delighted to welcome customers who want to visit, and bring along their item of furniture – it might be a dining chair, a headboard or another item of furniture – and pick out their preferred fabric. They pride themselves on having famous customers from Sir Alex Ferguson to entrepreneur Theo Paphitis and even royalty!

So why not join the ever-growing list of happy clients and get your furniture spruced up by Rose Upholstery? For a competitive quotation, contact Rose Upholstery at Unit 7, 5 Homefield Road, Haverhill, CB9 8QP, or call (01440) 766999. Or browse their Facebook page: just search "Rose Upholstery".

RANGE CHANGE: The Passat BlueMotion

Efficiency boost for Volkswagen's upcoming Passat

VOLKSWAGEN is boosting the appeal of its multi-award-winning Passat and Passat Estate ranges with the addition of ultra-efficient BlueMotion variants. Both saloon and Estate models return 76.3mpg and emit just 95g/km of carbon dioxide.

Such efficiency is made possible thanks to the installation of a modified version of the Passat's entry-level 1.6-litre TDI 120 PS engine with SCR, as well as BlueMotion modifications. The engine's maximum power is produced at 3,600rpm, with torque of 250 Nm developed at 1,750rpm. Standstill to 62mph takes 10.8 seconds, while top speed is 130 mph – slightly greater than for the standard 1.6-litre engine – meaning there is no compromise in performance for the BlueMotion version. In Estate guise, the same is true with 0 to 62mph in 11 seconds and a top speed of 129 mph exceeding those of the standard 1.6-litre car.

The 1.6-litre TDI BlueMotion is available in combination with a six-speed manual gearbox only.

Based on the entry-level S model, all BlueMotion Passat models feature a Post-Collision Braking System, mis-fuelling prevention and Driver Alert, as well as Volkswagen's 6.5-inch 'Composition Media' infotainment system. Stop/Start and battery regeneration systems are also standard on board, while the BlueMotion adds 17-inch 'Soho' alloy wheels with super-optimised low rolling resistance tyres, sports suspension (lowered by 15mm), unique BlueMotion front and rear bumpers and BlueMotion badging and chrome grille highlights.

Prices for the BlueMotion model start at £23,200 RRP OTR for the Passat saloon and rise to £24,750 for the Estate.

Passat and Passat Estate BlueMotion models are available to order now, with first deliveries expected in August.

For more details, visit your nearest Volkswagen retailer or go to volkswagen.co.uk.

Easter Fjordland Cruise

Sailing from Tilbury on board Magellan, departing 26 March 2016

This wonderful springtime cruise takes in the splendours of glorious Western Norway awakening from its winter slumber, and includes visits to two of the most famous fjords, with their picture-book villages and pristine hinterland, as well as historic Bergen, ancient Hanseatic trading city and 'Fjordland Gateway'.

After an Easter Sunday spent at sea, Magellan cruises into majestic Handangerfjord, where sheer mountainsides plunge into the still waters, and where tiny Ulvik is an oasis of tranquility, far removed from our hectic world. Another day sees you navigate mighty Sognefjord, the world's largest and deepest, and home to remote Flåm, where you might board the world famous Flåmsbana Mountain Railway. In Bergen, birthplace of composer Edvard Grieg, stroll through the ancient Bryggen area and perhaps take in the view from the summit of 'Mount' Fløyen - another highlight of a wonderful voyage.

Our price includes

- Cruise the length of stunning Hardangerfjord over 100kms into the Norwegian interior
- Take a shore excursion into the pristine hinterland
- Discover Sognefjord, the world's longest and deepest
- Take the optional excursion on the world famous Flåmsbana Mountain Railway
- Visit Bergen, ancient trading city and 'Gateway to the Fjords'
- Traditional British & International cuisine, stylish entertainment, guest lecturers & on-board leisure facilities
- Six nights' full board accommodation on board Magellan

New England in the Fall

Flying from an airport near you, departing 9, 11, 15, 18, 19, 21, 23 Oct 2015, 23 Sept, 1, 5, 9 & 23 Oct 2016

There are few finer sights in the world than when the millions of trees which carpet the northeast corner of the United States signal the end of the summer and the imminent arrival of 'Fall' with a blaze of reds and golden hues, framed against the still-blue skies.

A journey to this corner of the globe at this time of the year is a very special experience, and all the more so when combined with the chance to discover the great East Coast cities of New York and colonial Boston, and the opportunity to take in several other highlights of glorious New England. Just imagine! The unforgettable Manhattan skyline; the cobbled streets of Boston's Beacon Hill; the historic sites where the American Revolution began; the scenic drives through the 'Fall Foliage' scenery to places like New Hampshire's White Mountains - our super value holiday offers all this and much, much more!

Our price includes

- Return flights from Birmingham & London Heathrow to New York
- Scenic touring through New England's fall colours including New Hampshire's White Mountains and the Kancamagus Highway
- Full day visits to Boston and New York
- Visit to the Yankee Candle Factory
- En route visits to Plymouth and Newport, Rhode Island
- Seven nights' accommodation at comfortable touring hotels
- Comfortable coach travel throughout
- Friendly, experienced tour manager

Briggs delight at St Andrews win

CHRIS Briggs enjoyed success when he competed in the International Rotary Competition at St Andrews.

The Haverhill past president was one of 250 players involved in the competition, finishing in the top nine for England after two days of qualifying on the Eden course.

That saw Briggs play a further two days on the Old Course – venue for this year's Open Championship – and be awarded an England tie for his qualifying performance.

But more was to come at the presentation evening when he received the Stanley Gunary Memorial Cup for the best score during qualifying, of 44 points.

"My greatest claim to fame is that I parred the notorious 17th Road Hole on the Old Course," said Briggs.

His wife, Janet, had something to celebrate as well after her and her Slovenian playing partner finished second out of 45 teams in the Fellowship Foursomes.

Lyn Fish, Paul Raffell, Peter Young and John Young were the winners of this year's Midsummer Madness event, which is held to celebrate the longest day of the year.

The format was a mixed teams of four stableford, with three scores to count on each hole and 15 teams taking part.

Fish, Raffell and the Youngs took victory with 130 points, with Paul Chapman, Len Sanders, Garry Kerr and Martin Turner beating Michael Fowler, Neil Saville, Chris Gavin and Frank Gooch on countback after both teams scored 128.

Marian Mercer won Haverhill ladies' Midsummer Tankard after scoring 23 points in the 10-hole stableford competition.

Ann Thompson finished as runner-up on 22, beating Alice Iron on countback.

The seniors' Norman White Trophy, played over 10 holes as greensomes format and played off a combined one-quarter handicap, was won by Bob Hammett and Jim Mulley with nett 36.

Andrew Cornish and Val Shipp took second on 36.25.

Haverhill's men are through to the third round of the Hambro Cup following a five-up victory away to Halesworth, and now host Bungay on July 19.

Halesworth were seven up after the morning foursomes, but captain Chris Vince's decision to change the playing order around in the afternoon worked wonders as Haverhill fought back to win.

However, they lost five down away to West Suffolk in the Tolly Cup.

The ladies beat Bury St Edmunds 4-0 in a friendly match.

Pat Kennedy and Carol Day won 4&3, Lyn Fish and Jenni Bradnam won two up, Linda Alexander and Pauline Calmet won two up, and Gill Richardson and Mandy Williamson won 5&4.

Trophy triumph: Haverhill past president Chris Briggs.

Haverhill ladies suffer narrow loss to Soham

HAVERHILL Tennis Club's ladies team suffered a narrow defeat to Soham in the Norfolk & Suffolk League.

There were some enjoyable games, with Sharon Matthews and Marcia Armstrong sharing the sets in their first match 3-6, 6-1.

In the second they were edged out in the tie-break 7-6, but won the next set 6-3.

Danielle Miller and Rachel Jeffs also halved their first match 3-6, 6-4, but then lost their next one 6-1, 6-0, giving Soham a 5-3 win.

The club held its Great British Tennis Weekend, a national scheme supported by the Lawn Tennis Association.

The club opened its doors to all members of the public and invited them to try out variations of the sport, such as cardio tennis and mini tennis.

Nearly 60 people attended the event, with one of the highlights being 20 players aged from seven years to over-60 taking part in cardio tennis.

Woodley thrilled with victory

HAVERHILL enjoyed a six-wicket win over Kelvedon & Feering in the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship, Division Two.

Callum Brunning took 4 for 31 as the visitors were all out for 172.

Sam Powell (48), Anthony

Phillips (63 not out) and Russell Davis (36 not out) then guided Haverhill to 174 for 4.

Skipper Joe Woodley said: "We were pleased to avoid a cancellation as the rain at tea almost killed off the game after we had bowled ourselves into a winning position."
